

Advance Directives: What They are and Why You Need Them

A Presentation & Workshop by the Center for Disability and Elder Law (CDEL)

Thursday, March 13, 2025 at 1 PM

Worth Public Library District
6917 W. 111th St., Worth

Which critical documents should you have in place to maintain control of healthcare and financial decisions if incapacitated? How can you direct what happens to your estate after death? Join the discussion with staff from the Center for Disability & Elder Law.

Presentation attendees 60+ years of age and younger adults living with a permanent disability may be eligible to participate in a follow-up workshop with attorneys who provide some of these legal documents at no charge. Workshop date and eligibility guidelines will be provided on March 13th at the Worth Public Library District.
