

Communication Strategies for Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias

JUNE 30, 2025 at 11 AM

Patricia McClure-Chessier is the Award-Winning Author of "Losing a Hero to Alzheimer's The Story of Pearl" and "A Caregiver's Guide for Alzheimer's and Dementia: Nine Key Principles." Patricia will share her journey about how she cared for her mother who was diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease. Patricia will share communication strategies from her book "A Caregiver's Guide for Alzheimer's and Dementia: Nine Key Principles." Participants will learn how to avoid power struggles, learn what to do when their loved one is non-compliant with their daily skills, or when their loved one displayed challenging behaviors.

Location:

Park Forest Public Library
400 Lakewood Blvd., Park Forest

Expert Speaker:

Patricia McClure-Chessier is author of "Losing a Hero to Alzheimer's The Story of Pearl" and "A Caregiver's Guide for Alzheimer's and Dementia Nine Key Principles." She has an MBA, MPA, and Bachelor's Degree in Psychology.

REGISTRATION ENCOURAGED

Contact Park Forest Public Library at 708.748.3731 or scan the QR Code

Enriched by experience.
Empowered in life.

Pathlights guides people along the path to aging in Southwest Suburban Cook County.

Call 708.361.0219

Visit www.pathlights.org