

Are you a grandparent or relative raising children?

Grandparents Raising Children

Pathlights provides support and resources for grandparents and other older adult relatives who are raising children or caring for a family member under age 18. Our services offer guidance, encouragement, and connections to resources that can help make caregiving easier.

Our support may include:

- Information, guidance, and consultation
- Connections to community programs and services
- Emergency financial assistance in some situations

There is no cost for these services.

Grandparents Raising Children Support Group
